

CV Ing. Jo Urlings

- Chairman of Trade Association for Safe Workplaces in Railways. (BWR), Utrecht, NL
- President of the EFRTC (European Federation of Railway Trackworks Contractors), Luxembourg
- Marketing Director BAM Rail, Contractor of railway projects (Dutch High Speed Line and others). Breda, NL
- Founder, Director and General Manager of Infra Safety Services, Workplace Safety on Track, Dordrecht, NL
- CEO Buyk Aannemingsbedrijf, Contractor in cables, signalling, electrification and telecommunications, new build activities and maintenance. Roosendaal, NL
- Commercial Director and General Manager of van Welzenes Spoorbouw, responsible for renewals/new build of railinfra southern part of the Netherlands, project leader new build activities for metro and tramways in Amsterdam, Rotterdam and the Hague, NL
- Member of CEN TC 256 /SC1 – WG 34 and WG 39. Brussels BE
- Fellow Permanent Way Institution (UK),
- Member Verband Deutscher Eisenbahn-Ingenieure (D)
- Companion Institution of Railway Signal Engineers (UK)
- Advisor to Railtech. Utrecht, NL
- Lectures since 2001 at several Technical Universities, Delft, the Hague, Rotterdam and Eindhoven, NL
- Speaker int. technical symposia/conferences Bucharest, Budapest, Lisbon, Paris, Prague, Brussels, London, Delft, Utrecht etc.
- Winner Infratech Innovation Award 2003, Rotterdam, Mobility Award 2003, Rotterdam, Eimert Sinoo Award for Safety Innovations 1994, 1995 and 1996, Utrecht, NL
- Over 40 years experience working for railways (heavy and light) both in public and private sector
- Over 25 years Commander of Company of 150 dutch military volunteers (Department Ministry of Defense) Responsible for training, education, use in emergencies flooding etc. NL
- Fluent in English, German, and Dutch understanding French