

CV Dr. Ing. Imrich Korpanec

- Secretary General of the EFRTC (European Federation of Railway Trackworks Contractors), Luxembourg
- Director of Research and Deputy Director of the Technology Dept. at UIC (International Union of Railways), Paris
- Managing Director and General Manager of the ERRI (European Rail Research Institute), Utrecht, NL
- Technical Advisor and Director of ORE (Office for Research and Experiments of the UIC), Utrecht NL
- Director of the International Dept. at Transport Ministry at Prague
- Advisor to Transport Minister for Research, IT and railway construction in Prague
- Lectures at Technical University in Prague and TU Delft
- PhD degree at Moscow Transport University
- Project Management for Engineers, Massachusetts Institute of Technology
- Managing Technical People and Operations, George Washington University
- Over 40 years' experience working for railways both in public and private sector as well as scientists/researcher and manager of European projects
- Numerous publications/articles issued in various journals and Conference proceedings in UK, Germany, France, Czech and Slovak republic, Russia, Italy, Poland, Japan, U.S.A. and Australia
- Fluent in English, German, French, Czech, Slovak and Russian, understanding Dutch, Polish, Italian and Spanish